The MO Chapter of AAIDD (MO-AAIDD) is gearing up for their 2017 Fall Conference "Community Membership for Everyone - Navigating HCBS Rule: 6 Standards as Simple as ABC...D." Deb Wisniewski, Asset-Based Community Development (ABCD) Institute, will lead discussions and provide tools to participants based on the ABCD model. The purpose of ABCD is to strengthen relationships between people while building stronger communities where all people can have meaningful lives. Workshops will be held in three different locations including Independence, St. Peters, and Springfield. Registration details will be made available at a later date.
